June 4 Wedding Set By Mary Emeneger

Miss Mary Ann Emeneger will be a June bride, it was revealed recently. Nativity Catholic church will be the setting on June 4 for her wedding to Dale Kenneth Wells, it was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Emeneger, Sr.

The bride-elect is a member of Court St. Catherine of the Catholic Daughters of America, and also a member of the senior choir at Nativity church. She and her family have been residents of Torrance for the past two years, formerly residing in Cincinnati, Ohio, where Mary Ann attended St. Xavier commercial high school. She is now employed by a Torrance insulation firm.

The bridegroom-elect is the son of Charles L. Wells of 22534 South Vermont avenue, and the late Mrs. Wells. He is a Narbonne high school graduate, having also attended Torrance high school. Kenneth, as he is known to his many friends, also attended Harbor junior college and National TV school prior to his two years' service with the 40th Division in Korea. He is presently employed by General Electric in Los Angeles.

Complimented by Shower
Last week the bride-to-be was complimented by a lovely shower given by Mrs. Betty Goddard at her home, 1735 Elm avenue. A bridal party in miniature was used for table decor, with the color theme of blue and white being carried out in the gowns of the bride and attendants.

Small angel food cakes formed the billowing skirts of the dolls on the table, with the three bridesmaids in blue, and the bride and her flower girl in traditional white.

Club Modistes Hold Spool & Bobbin Show

Decorations a la couture keynoted the Spool and Bobbin fashion show staged by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club last night, as huge needles pierced the stage curtains, and oversized scissors, spools of thread, and measuring tape were used to carry out the theme throughout the room. Mute models were two dressmaker dummies on each end of the stage; one in modern attire, the other of a bygone era.

Skill Displayed
Junior members displaying their skill with needle, thread, and scissors included Mesdames

James Halle, Paul Winn, B. F. Townsend, Richard Heath, C. Albert Smith, Sid Gans, Don Porter, Lou Stellar, George Stevens, R. J. Setting, John Kemp, Gerry Wood, Jack Norris, Don Moore, and John Agapito.

These members modeled fashions made, and some designed, by themselves. The styles ran the gamut of sportswear, casuals, and dinner attire. Showing cute fashions for younger misses were Debby Agapito and Debby Porter, the former modeling with her mother, a mother-daughter combination, and little Miss Porter modeling a red and white dotted Swiss pinafore frock made by her mother.

Junior Aquarium Club to Meet

The Junior Harbor Aquarium Society will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday, May 13, at 7:30 p.m. in their new meeting place, the clubhouse at Walteria Park in Walteria. President Joe Cocke will call the meeting to order.

The new counselors, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nelson of 430 39th st., San Pedro, will be introduced to the members at this meeting. Movies will be shown. Barbs will be the showfish for show and discussion.

The door prize will be a five gallon tank and hood. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

Millinery Shown
Modeling chapeaux was Mrs. Jack Norris, whose creations were inspired during the millinery classes sponsored by the Woman's Club, and which Mrs. Norris attended.

Assisting the models backstage were Mesdames J. K. Leopold and D. G. Paul, while Mrs. C. J. Bolles served as commentator. Chairman of the fashion show was Mrs. John Schwartz, assisted by Mesdames Gerry Wood and Lou Stellar.

Honored guests of the evening were senior Woman's Club members, and they were greeted by Mrs. Robert Schooley and Mrs. James Weir, junior-senior coordinator. Mrs. Burton Tatum was chairman of refreshments which were served from the club's gleaming silver service enhanced by the table decorations of tea roses and tapers.

Parenthood Topic of P-TA Meet

The topic, "We Train for the Profession of Parenthood," will be featured at 186th Street school when the P-TA holds its monthly meeting Thursday, May 12. Guest speaker will be Mrs. A. Harold Miller, Tenth District honorary life membership chairman, and recognized expert on child guidance and child psychology.

The Merry Bluebirds, led by Mrs. Herman Eisenbeiss, will entertain. This is one of a number of youth groups sponsored by the 186th Street association. First grade room representatives will be hostesses for the social hour with first grade teachers acting as honorary hostesses.

CLASSES

A spring course for expectant mothers will be inaugurated at the Torrance Health Center, 2300 Carson street, under the sponsorship of the County Health Department, according to Dr. B. Kogan, district health officer.

The classes will meet every Thursday at 12:30 p.m. with Miss Kristine Kawaguchi, public health nurse instructor, in charge. In addition to demonstrations on formula preparation and baby bath technique, Miss Kawaguchi has booked several motion pictures during the sessions.

Booties Keynote Shower For Mrs. R. Hagenbaugh

Small individual cakes made to imitate yellow and white booties and tiny frosting booties on the sugar lumps for coffee brought exclamations from guests at a shower complimenting Mrs. Woodie Strohman held in the 1011 Felbar avenue home of Mrs. Robert Hagenbaugh. Mrs. Galen Truesdell took the bows for the original confections, and Mrs. Hagenbaugh's sister-in-law assisted as hostess.

Yellow and white composed the color theme for the party, with the colors carried out in the flowers and tapers held by silver candelabrae on the table.

Among those present at the lovely affair were Mesdames Lorraine Berning, Ester D'Ornellas, Millie Galyardt, Lucille Gonta, Eleanor Willmore, Maxene Kelty, Jean Beecher, Fran Meyer, Barbara Rankin, Pat Lee, "Sharkey" Carstenson, Ruth Mohr, and Donna Truesdale.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were Mesdames Lola Kelly, Lois Fuller, Claire Armitstead, Helen Osterlind, and Ilse Moody.

Lioness Club Names Officers

Mrs. H. J. Osborne was elected president of the Torrance Lioness Club at the group's recent election held at the home of Mrs. Fred Boren, 1318 Elm avenue. Formal installation of officers will be held in July in conjunction with the Lions Club.

Other officers elected at this time were Mesdames Abe Robinson, first vice-president; Fred Boren, second vice-president; Mott Farrell, secretary; Pete Radisich, treasurer; and Ruel Moulton, hairpuller.

YOUNGS ENTERTAIN
Mr. and Mrs. A. LeRoy Young, 2624 Cabrillo, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ned Nelson of Long Beach Friday evening at an Italian dinner complete with spaghetti and pizza.
